

MOAA'S PRESIDENT IS COMING TO BLUE SKIES!

Friday 11 Jan 2019

Social hour 5pm

Dinner and Program 6pm

Blue Skies of Texas West Dining Room

Lt Gen Atkins, USAF (Retired), President and CEO of the Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) will be the featured speaker at this dinner event hosted by the Blues Skies of Texas Satellite of the Alamo Chapter of MOAA. He will provide an update on MOAA's work with the new Congress. He represents the approximately 350,000 members of MOAA working on issues, such as health benefits, that impact you and your family.

Reservations are necessary as there will be limited seating – see below.

A command pilot with more than 4,000 hours in fighter aircraft, Atkins has served in a number of key command and staff positions, including commander, 20th Fighter Wing, Shaw AFB, S.C.; commander, 35th Fighter Wing, Misawa, Japan; vice commander, 7th Air Force and U.S. Air Force Korea; director of operations, U.S. Pacific Command; and special assistant to the supreme allied commander Europe during the air war over Serbia.

During his career, he flew as a demonstration pilot for both the European A-10 Demonstration Team and the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds. At the time of his retirement from the Air Force, Atkins served as commander, Alaskan Command, U.S. Pacific Command; commander, 11th Air Force, Pacific Air Forces; and commander, Alaskan North American Defense Region, Elmendorf AFB, Alaska.

Before becoming the ninth president of MOAA, Atkins served as president of Chronicle Media, a print and digital media company based in Augusta, GA that serves the southeastern U.S.
