MINUTES of February 28 , 2017

The meeting was called to order at 1331 hrs by Tom Earnest, President, who then led the pledge of allegiance. Those present were: Tom Ballinger, VVA; David Cuellar, 141st; Raul De La Garza, SFA; Tom Earnest, MERV; Nicki Frey, WMA; Trish Martin, WOSL; Manny Mendoza, MSD; Karen Nauschuetz, DAR, and Wendy Weller, MOWW. The minutes for January 2017 were approved as corrected. The treasurer's report is $9,588.58, with dues to be added from several organizations.

Committee reports

Cemetery Committee- The cemetery main gate will reopen in May in time for Memorial Day, and construction of the bridge over Nursery Road will start then. The only entrance to the cemetery will be thru the checkpoint on Winans Road at the cemetery maintenance shop gate. Policy on admittance is being formulated now for those without an ID card. The Memorial Day ceremony will be held in the old section by the gazebo, and will start at 0930 hrs, with the speaker who got rained out last year. The 4th of July cemetery may be moved to the Paso Hondo Location again this year.

MSD committee – The MSD recruited another bugler and now has seven. Former POW Luis Flores died and MSD guarded the casket and provided military honors. They are in desperate need of a new bus to be donated.

Unfinished Business: Missing in America has identified six veteran cremains in Amarillo, and they will be escorted by the Patriot guards from city to city to San Antonio for a mass burial. The date will be April<sup>21</sup> at 1000 hrs, at the cemetery, at the assembly area. Governor Abbott and Mayor Ivy have been invited to attend. MacArthur High School Army JROTC will provide a color guard. There are 92 cremains still left in Amarillo, not identified as veterans, and there are still 17,000 unclaimed remains in the nation. Those identified as veterans will be hopefully referred to Missing in America for assistance in burial.

New Business: Veterans Day parade- need time, date, truck, trailer, chairs. Have some decorations.

Announcements-

The San Antonio Honor Flight will hold its next trip on May 19-20, so contact Tom if you know someone who may want to go. Next flight will be in September. Randolph AFB retiree appreciation day will be April 8 at the enlisted club from 0830 to 1200. A historical program and lunch in honor of the WWI centennial will be held on May 20 at hangar 9 at Brooks city Base. VVA is selling fiesta medals, see Tom Ballinger if you want one.

Next meeting will be March 28 at 1330hrs.

Respectfully submitted
Wendy Weller, secretary
